CHOICES NAVIGATOR is a program funded by Social Security and administered in the western half of Kentucky by the Center for Accessible Living in Louisville.

The Center will make available a Community Work Incentive Coordinator, a knowledgeable advocate, who will help you understand complex work incentive program requirements.

This program helps SSI and SSDI disability beneficiaries, ages 14 through full retirement age, to understand their work options so that they may make more informed choices about going to work. The program provides information about federal, state and local work incentive and related programs.

As a part of this program, you will receive information about the availability of Protection and Advocacy services that are available without charge.

QUESTIONS...

- Do you receive SSI or SSDI?
- Are you working, about to start work, or actively looking for work?
- Are you unsure of how working will affect your benefits?
- Confused about all the rules and regulations?
- Afraid of telling Social Security that you want to work?

ANSWERS...

Work Incentives Coordinators from across the state of Kentucky are available to assist SSI and SSDI disability beneficiaries and the family members and professionals assisting in their return to work effort with:

- Information about Transitional Assistance, Medical Benefits, Social Security, Public Housing, Workers Compensation, Resources for Training or Education Related to Employment
- Personalized benefits planning and work incentives planning.
- Information about how working will affect benefits
- Ongoing assistance on issues concerning benefits
